Greetings Citizens!

As some of you may know my family (the 3 of us) has recently opened an Art Supplies store here in Aptos, CA. The store is aptly named ART SUPPLIES, INK. (see that clever little thing I did on the end there with the "k"...my idea, taking full credit). We opened two weeks ago after 2 months of remodeling our space and waiting for inventory to arrive. The store's shaped up really well! We are almost fully stocked now and also have wonderful original art, sculptures, paintings, jewelry on display/sale from various local artists. Including my works as well, of course. And comics!!! Lots of comics!

Our big GRAND OPENING event will be March 2nd and we'll be having awesome raffle prizes, food, drinks, face painting for the kids, art demos, etc.! By then we'll also have an extensive listing of our art classes set up. The classes will be offered for both children and adults.

It has been quite the undertaking setting the store up. Many sleepless nights. We now look forward to rolling along, working within our community, and settling into the wonderful world of retail! Please stop in if you're ever in the Santa Cruz area.

Art Supplies, Ink. is located at 7960 Soquel Drive, Suite H. Aptos, CA 95003. Ph # 831-708-2855
